Dispute with Ratidzo Mukarati

It was reported that Kaseke and Mukarati almost fought during the Harare provincial coordinating committee meeting presided over by provincial chairman Godwills Masimirembwa and attended by members of the Central Committee, provincial executives, war veterans and both winning and losing candidates in the primary elections. When asked about it Betty said "This so-called chairwoman for Harare province who imposed herself on that position is getting out of hand and she needs to be stopped from intimidating people using senior people's names in the party and soldiers. I have been quiet for a long time while she has been attacking and accusing me falsely, getting into my family affairs saying all sorts of nonsense about me and my husband. If I am wrong as she claims, what does my family affairs have to do with her or the party?"

But when Mukarati was asked about it she said "I don't know what you are talking about. All what I know is that Kaseke is my MP and I am even campaigning for her,"^[2]
